

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic and sexual abuse and violence is not acceptable. If you or someone you know is a victim, report it and get help.

There are many organisations that can provide support. The below organisations are supported by Bristol City Council.

Next Link Plus – provide services, and can help arrange emergency accommodation for people who have experienced domestic or sexual abuse

Tel: 0117 925 0680

Email: enquiries@nextlinkhousing.co.uk

National Domestic Violence Helpline – helps women experiencing domestic abuse

Tel: 0808 2000 247

Men's Advice Line – helps men and boys by offering advice and finding you a place in a safe house if its needed.

Tel: 0808 801 0327

Help for children and young people – You can tell a teacher, a neighbour, a friend, a friend's parent or the police.

You can ring Childline on 0800 1111 for free.

You can also call the Bristol First Response Team on 0117 90364444.

